

WHAT MEMBERS ARE SAYING

I really love the service, and I think I might be close to an offer. If not, I will re-subscribe. Thanks for a great service!

I have to say, this is an outstanding service. I signed up on a whim, and this is the best online job-posting service I have ever come across for radio positions. Congratulations RadioCrossing.com!

I really like the web site for current job availability. I have used this a couple of times and have had great success with my job placement.

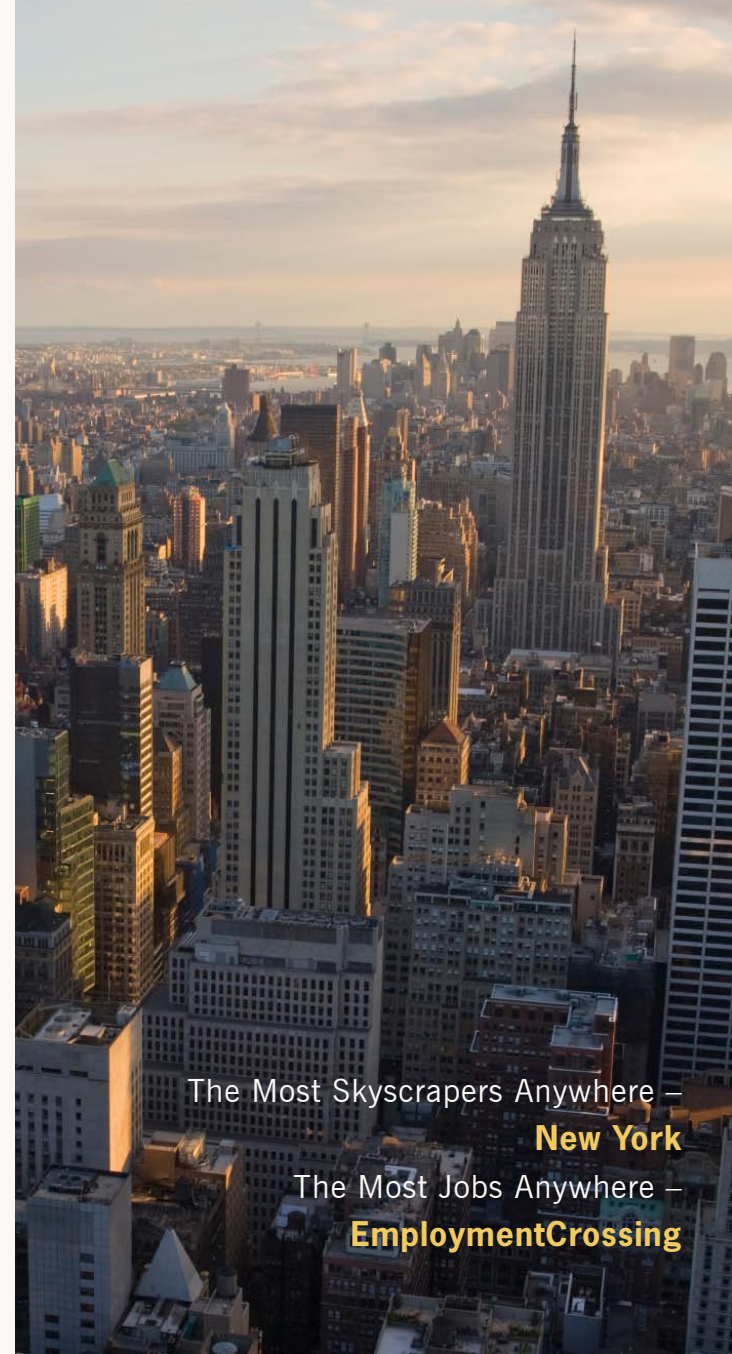

Tracy T.

I really like the ability to narrow your search by location instead of having to scan through several hundred postings. This feature was well worth my time. I was able to secure a position within a week.

The EmploymentCrossing Difference

The Most People Anywhere - China

The Most Jobs Anywhere - EmploymentCrossing

- ▶ A comprehensive collection of over 2 million researched job openings.
- ▶ Job openings from all Fortune 500 companies.
- ▶ Job openings from more than 250,000 websites.
- ▶ Job openings from virtually every job board in America.
- ▶ Hundreds of highly trained job-opening research analysts reviewing jobs.
- ▶ We do not charge employers to post their job openings.
- ▶ We are a private, member-supported job-opening research institution; therefore, far fewer people are applying for the job openings on our site than are applying for those on public job-opening boards.

“EmploymentCrossing’s intent is to change people’s lives by providing them with the means to control their professional destinies and reach their career goals. EmploymentCrossing was founded on the principle that when people are connected with careers that professionally fulfill them, they will reach new levels of prosperity and success in all aspects of their lives. EmploymentCrossing offers job seekers the initial spark that can inspire and drive their professional success.”

EmploymentCrossing has revolutionized job searching. It's the only job-opening research institution in the world whose mission is to track down every job opening possible. We employ hundreds of highly trained research analysts who continuously search virtually every job board and employer career webpage in America. That's more than 250,000 employers, including all Fortune 500 companies. Our goal is to provide our members with the most comprehensive collection of jobs – all organized by profession and updated several times daily.

EmploymentCrossing doesn't believe in charging employers to post their jobs on our site, which means even more jobs are exclusively available to our members. And we are constantly contacting thousands of these employers everyday so that we can add new listings daily and remove old ones.

We are an exclusive and private service, and only members have access to our job-opening research. In addition, we are not supported by advertisers; EmploymentCrossing works for its members only, providing them with real job listings from eager employers. And with nearly 100 industry-specific portals, EmploymentCrossing offers a targeted selection of jobs for the individual job seeker. This allows our members to streamline their search and only explore jobs that are relevant to them.

Along with our exclusive jobs, we want to also provide our members with all the tools they need to successfully find their ideal employment. Members can take advantage of our advanced search function that customizes and saves their job searches. They can also receive instant job alerts, get resume help, and stay informed with our top-notch industry newswire.

At EmploymentCrossing, our effective job searching system is tried, trusted and true. We are proud to be a part of changing the careers and lives of our members each day. Whether our members seek a new job, a better job, more job security, a dramatically increased income, a more flexible job, more responsibility -- EmploymentCrossing can help them get there faster and more effectively than any other source. We are the only job-opening research institution in the world whose stated mission is to track down every job—in every field—and provide the public access to its job-opening research. Our blend of hundreds of highly trained research analysts and state-of-the-art technology captures, categorizes, ranks, and displays the highest-quality jobs from hundreds of job sites, companies, and organizations. EmploymentCrossing empowers job seekers to find a new job more efficiently by providing thousands of thoroughly researched job openings in one place. EmploymentCrossing is transforming the careers and lives of thousands of people each week, each day.
